DEVELOPING WOMEN TO DO A WORLD OF GOOD

INVESTING IN THE
JUNIOR LEAGUE OF SAN JOSE

The Junior League of San Jose (JLSJ) is an organization of women whose mission is to advance women's leadership for meaningful community impact through volunteer action, collaboration, and training.

JLSJ is one of 295+ Junior Leagues in the Association of Junior Leagues International (AJLI). Our collective impact across the globe makes us catalysts for lasting community change.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

At the heart of our organization lies a passion for empowering women to become stronger leaders, equipped with the skills and knowledge necessary to create a more equitable and vibrant community. We believe in the transformative power of women who are engaged, informed, and connected. Every leadership opportunity within the Junior League is dedicated to women. With over 350 Members, JLSJ provides the ability to develop leadership skills at every level of the organization, from committee Members to the Board of Directors. In 2025, JLSJ is on track to provide more than 50 distinct training and leadership development opportunities for our Members, ranging in topic from Resume Building to Fund Development to Effective Storytelling. In addition, your donations supports Member attendance at regional and national women's leadership conferences.

OUR MISSION BY THE NUMBERS

- 350+ Active and Sustaining Members
- 12,000 Hours Volunteered in our Community Annually
- 50+ In-Person and Virtual Leadership Trainings per Year
- 10+ Annual State and National Leadership Conferences
- 75+ Partners and Projects Throughout our Rich History
- $5.5 Million in Community Grants and Scholarships

COMMITMENT TO DEIB

JLSJ believes in the importance of diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging. It is our goal to address, explore, educate and respond to the diverse human experience. We prepare our Members to successfully understand diverse perspectives and backgrounds by teaching critical thinking, empathy, and a deeper appreciation of others.

COMMUNITY PARTNER

The Junior League of San Jose is proud to partner with Hunger at Home, a vital local organization dedicated to combating food insecurity and fostering self-sufficiency in Silicon Valley. This ongoing collaboration reflects JLSJ's commitment to addressing critical community needs and amplifying the impact of organizations making a tangible difference in the lives of our neighbors. To maximize our collective impact, JLSJ is providing Hunger at Home with a $50,000 unrestricted grant to support their operations and expand their reach. This partnership will also leverage JLSJ's Community Impact Strategies to support their work.

JLSJ addresses the issues of Poverty and Food Insecurity in Santa Clara County through five key pillars that create lasting community impact:

- Advocacy/Policy Awareness: Educating and advocating for policies that address root causes
- Coalition Building: Convening diverse organizations and individuals focused on similar goals
- Capacity Building: Increasing partner capacity to serve affected communities effectively
- Direct Service: Volunteering directly with community partners on the ground
- Strategic Grantmaking: Providing unrestricted grants to empower and allow flexibility

FUNDING OUR FUTURE

When you give to the Junior League of San Jose, you are not only supporting our Mission and vision, but you are also investing in the rich legacy of women who have dedicated themselves to building stronger communities for over 55 years. Our organization has a proud history of empowering women, fostering community connections, and effecting positive change. JLSJ appreciates all individual and corporate donors and underwriters, without whom its community services would not be possible. There are many exciting Sponsorship levels that allow you or your company to meet your philanthropic giving objectives while providing marketing opportunities at League events and in League publications. Donations to JLSJ are tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Our Tax ID number is 94-1720473.
