

LEADERSHIP TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

Leadership development is core to the Mission of the Junior League of San Jose (JLSJ). By cultivating skilled and passionate leaders, we empower women to drive positive change within our community. Our comprehensive training programs equip women with the tools necessary to excel in nonprofit board service and civic leadership, fostering a pipeline of talented individuals poised to make a lasting impact. We offer a diverse range of learning opportunities at the local, state, and national levels, ensuring our Members have access to a wealth of knowledge and resources to support their leadership journey.

EXPERIENTIAL TRAINING

Committee participation offers Members practical experience in Communications, Fund Development, Recruitment, or other areas, enhancing both volunteer and professional skill sets

LEADERSHIP TRAINING PROGRAM (LTP)

Equips Members with comprehensive skills and knowledge through structured curriculum, networking opportunities, and expert guidance

TRAINING COLLABORATIVE

Leverage an online network of Junior Leagues sharing expertise through virtual training sessions, enhancing Member development and organizational capacity

TRAINING CONFERENCES

Regional, State, and National training engagements where Members develop valuable leadership skills, expand their knowledge base, and connect with a broader network of peers

TOMORROW'S COMMUNITY LEADERS

The Junior League of San Jose develops women leaders who excel in nonprofit and civic leadership, with alumni serving in key roles at organizations such as the American Cancer Society, Child Advocates of Silicon Valley, the Association of Fundraising Professionals, HOPE Services, United Way, the Health Trust, and the Tech Museum of Innovation.
